This guide includes some of my favorite recipes, adapted from cookbooks and online sources. Because the Beyond Diet is not a diet in the traditional sense but a new way of eating that you want to adopt for life, it is essential that you keep your meals tasty, interesting, and creative. Eating the same foods again and again leads to boredom and abandonment. To prevent this from happening, I highly encourage you to try at least one new recipe per week that suits your meal plan. Also, be adventurous and try some foods that you have never tried before.

With all of the recipes presented here (and with any other recipe you may choose to use), adhere to all the principles taught in the manual. For example, organic ingredients are always best. Whenever possible, choose free-range, hormone- and antibiotic-free, fresh, and wild meats, poultry, eggs, and fish. Don’t fear salt, but do use an unrefined sea salt or, preferably, Celtic sea salt. Oils should be cold expeller-pressed. Water should be pure and filtered. And the only breads you should consume should be made from organic sprouted whole grains (e.g., Food for Life brand’s Ezekiel 4:9 products).

Also, remember that allowable food servings and portion sizes differ for each person, depending on metabolic type and the number of calories required daily. Please adjust recipe portions to suit your meal plan, as instructed in the Chapter on Daily Meal Planning, according to the Allowable Servings Guide and the Food Choices charts. For example, if you are a Carb Type allowed four 1-oz servings of protein for dinner and a chicken recipe makes 6-oz servings (or doesn’t specify a portion size), eat only 4 oz of chicken with your meal.

Remember, fresh food is best, and the more whole and natural the food you eat, the healthier you will be—and the better you will feel. Bon appétit!

Tea Juice

Drink this when you have a sugar craving. It’s a great substitute for unhealthy diet sodas and other sweet beverages.

5–6 bags caffeine-free herbal tea (e.g., peach, mint, chamomile, or fruit tea)

3 quarts (2.84 liters) boiling water

stevia powder (or liquid) to taste

Pour water over tea bags in a large pot. Add stevia while tea is hot. (Adjust amount according to the desired sweetness.)

Let the tea cool, remove tea bags, transfer tea to a serving pitcher or individual water bottles, and refrigerate.
Basic Salad Dressing

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

MAKES: ~¾ cup (180 mL)

1 tsp (5 mL) Dijon-style mustard, smooth or grainy
2 tbsp (30 mL) + 1 (5 mL) tsp wine vinegar
½ cup (120 mL) olive oil
1 tbsp (15 mL) flax seed oil

Whisk mustard into vinegar. Add olive oil in a thin stream, whisking constantly until oil is emulsified.
Whisk in flax oil, and use immediately.

Variation: Mix 1 tsp (5 mL) of finely chopped fresh herbs (e.g., parsley, tarragon, thyme, basil, or oregano) into the basic recipe after the mix has emulsified.
Lemon Pepper Dressing

Used in the Summer Salad recipe (page 12).

*(Joseph Mercola, Dr. Mercola’s Total Health Program)

MAKES: ~\( \frac{3}{4} \text{ cup} \) (180 mL)

- 2 tbsp (30 mL) fresh lemon juice
- 1 tbsp (15 mL) wine vinegar
- \( \frac{1}{4} \text{ tsp} \) (1.25 mL) salt
- \( \frac{1}{2} \) (2.5 mL) tsp cracked black peppercorns
- 1 dash stevia powder
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- \( \frac{1}{2} \) (120 mL) cup olive oil
- 1 tbsp (15 mL) flax seed oil

Place all ingredients in a bowl, and whisk vigorously until the mixture emulsifies.
Use-It-on-Everything Marinade

This delicious marinade works equally well on veggies, fish, poultry, and beef. It's particularly tasty on London broil, tri-tips, or chuck steak.
(Wild Oats Marketplace online recipes)

PREPARATION TIME: 15 minutes
MARINATING TIME: overnight
MAKES: enough for 20 lb of food

1 red onion, sliced
1 whole head garlic, cloves minced
4 tsp (40 mL) salt
4 tsp (40 mL) ground white pepper
4 tsp (40 mL) freshly ground black pepper
4 tsp (40 mL) paprika
3 tsp (30 mL) dried basil
4 tsp (40 mL) Worcestershire sauce
1 cup (240 mL) lemon juice
1 ¼ cups (300 mL) red wine vinegar
4 cups (32 oz or 950 mL) olive oil

Mix all ingredients until well blended. Pour over food, and marinate overnight.

Tip: Place food in a gallon-size plastic zipper-top bag, cover with marinade, and seal. This package travels well in coolers and is less cumbersome than a pan in the refrigerator. Flip the bag several times while marinating to cover the food evenly.
Cilantro Marinade

This marinade is delicious on Grilled Swordfish (page 64) or eggplant.
(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

MAKES: ½ cup (120 mL)

1 bunch cilantro, leaves only, finely chopped juice of 1 lemon
3 cloves garlic, minced
½ cup (120 mL) olive oil
¼ tsp (1.25 mL) freshly ground black pepper

Mix all ingredients together.
Caribbean Jerk Rub

Dry rubs are low-calorie, low-carbohydrate seasonings that are simple yet flavorful. Use this recipe on Grilled Caribbean Chicken (page 30).

(Joseph Mercola, Dr. Mercola’s Total Health Program)

6 tbsp (60g) minced garlic (or garlic powder)
6 tbsp (60g) minced onion
6 tbsp (60g) dried minced onion (or onion powder)
2 tbsp (30mL) allspice
1 tbsp (15mL) dried ground chipotle (or ground red chili pepper)
2 tbsp (30mL) Hungarian paprika
1 packet Sweet Leaf stevia powder
2 tbsp (30mL) dried thyme
2 tbsp (30mL) ground cinnamon
2 tsp (10 mL) ground nutmeg
1½ tsp (7.5mL) ground habanero pepper
zest of 2 lemons

Mix together all ingredients. Store in covered container, refrigerated, up to 1 month.
Béarnaise Sauce

Properly made, béarnaise sauce never attains more than medium heat, so the enzymes in the egg yolks are preserved. So delicious with meats and grilled fish, this sauce is worth mastering—and it’s not difficult. Used in the Grilled Swordfish recipe (page 64).
(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

MAKES: 1¼ cup (295mL)

2 tbsp (30mL) finely chopped shallots (or green onions)
1 tbsp (15mL) finely chopped fresh tarragon (or 1 tsp dried tarragon)
2 tbsp (30mL) white wine vinegar
2 tbsp (30mL) dry white wine (or vermouth)
5 egg yolks, at room temperature
4 oz (1 stick) butter, cut into pieces fresh lemon juice to taste
pinch of salt
pinch of freshly ground black pepper

In a small saucepan, combine the shallots, tarragon, vinegar, and wine. Bring mixture to a boil, and reduce to ~1 tbsp (15mL) of liquid. Strain into a bowl and set aside.
In a small bowl, whisk the egg yolks and set aside.
Set the bowl with the reduced liquid over a pan of hot water over low heat. Piece by piece, add about half the butter to the liquid, whisking constantly until melted. Add the egg yolks slowly, drop by drop or in a thin stream, whisking constantly. Add the remaining butter, and whisk until well amalgamated. Sauce should be warm and slightly thickened. Remove from heat and whisk in lemon juice, salt, and pepper.
Set the bowl set over hot water to keep sauce warm, whisking occasionally, until ready to serve.
Vegetable Dishes

Summer Salad

This salad is best made several hours before serving. The secret to its success is to cut the vegetables in a fine dice. A food processor makes that task quick and easy.
(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 6

¾ (180mL) cup Lemon Pepper Dressing (page 7)
1 bunch celery, finely chopped
2 cucumbers, peeled, quartered lengthwise, and finely chopped
2 bunches green onions, finely chopped
2 green peppers, seeded and finely chopped
1 bunch radishes, finely chopped
3 tomatoes
1 tbsp finely chopped fresh parsley (or chives)

Place the dressing in a large bowl. Add celery, cucumbers, green onions, peppers, and radishes. Toss well with dressing, cover, and refrigerate several hours.
Just before serving, slice the tomatoes thinly, then cut the slices in half. Arrange slices around the outer edge of six plates, and mound some salad in the center of each. Sprinkle with chopped parsley.
Garlicky Steamed Stuffed Artichokes

This dish is messy to eat but delicious.
(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 4

4 artichokes
½ cup (120mL) olive oil (or melted butter)
4 cloves garlic, minced
2 cups (120g) breadcrumbs (make your own from fresh or stale sprouted whole grain bread)
salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste

Remove the artichoke stems and place, stem side down, in a vegetable steamer or a large pot containing about 1 inch of water. Steam, covered, no more than 30 minutes, or until just barely tender. Place artichokes in a colander to drain, stem side up.
Mix olive oil with garlic, breadcrumbs, salt, and pepper. Pull artichoke leaves open a bit, and snip points off leaves with kitchen shears. Press stuffing between leaves. Return to steamer for another 5–10 minutes.
Asparagus with Sesame Seeds

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 6

2½ lb (900g) asparagus, trimmed
2 tbsp (30mL) olive oil (or melted butter)
2 tbsp (30mL) minced shallots
2 tbsp (30mL) sesame seeds, lightly toasted
1 lemon
salt to taste

Preheat oven to 400°F.
Place oil and asparagus in an ovenproof baking dish, and toss asparagus to completely coat with oil. Bake for about 8 minutes, shaking the dish every 2 minutes or so. Add the shallots and sesame seeds, shake the dish again, and bake 1 minute more.
Transfer asparagus to heated serving bowl, and squeeze lemon juice all over. Season to taste with salt.
Vegetable Frittata

A frittata is like a no-flip omelet or a no-crust quiche—a fast egg dish that can be made with any combination of vegetable, meat, and cheese that you can imagine. (Joseph Mercola, Dr. Mercola’s Total Health Program)

SERVES: 4
PREPARATION TIME: 15 minutes

2 tbsp (30mL) butter (or coconut oil)
¾ cup (110g) chopped red onion
1 lb (450g) mushrooms (or red peppers), sliced
4 cups (600g) chopped low-GI vegetables (e.g., broccoli, cauliflower, zucchini, artichoke hearts, asparagus, spinach)
2 tbsp (30mL) minced fresh marjoram
8 medium eggs
¼ (60mL) cup milk
3 tsp (15mL) dry mustard (or 2 tsp (10mL) prepared mustard)
1 tsp (5mL) freshly ground black pepper
1 tsp (5mL) Spike vegetable seasoning (or salt)

Heat butter in large skillet over medium-high heat. Add onion and mushrooms and cook, stirring, for 1–2 minutes, or until onions are translucent.

Add chopped vegetables and marjoram. Sauté until vegetables turn bright green and begin to soften. Reduce heat to medium or medium-low.

Meanwhile, break eggs into a small bowl. Add milk, mustard, and black pepper. Use a fork to break yolks gently, without whisking (mixture will look marbleized), and pour eggs over vegetables in skillet. Cook over medium heat until eggs are set.
Basic Spaghetti Squash

Spaghetti squash is tasty low-carbohydrate substitute for pasta.
(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

1 spaghetti squash (any size)
butter, to taste
salt and freshly ground black pepper, to taste

Preheat oven to 350°F.
Cut spaghetti squash in half lengthwise; remove and discard seeds. Place squash, cut sides down, in a baking pan with about ½ inch (13mm) of water. Bake for about 1 hour, or until tender when pricked with a fork.
Let squash cool slightly, then remove the strands of flesh, bit by bit, with a fork. Mix in butter, salt, and pepper.
Variation: Serve topped with grated Parmesan cheese, pesto, or tomato sauce.
Butternut Squash Puree with Pecans

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 6

3 medium butternut squash
1–2 tbsp (15-30mL) butter (to grease the dish)
3 eggs, lightly beaten
¼ tsp (1.25mL) nutmeg
salt to taste
2 tbsp (30mL) butter, melted
¾ cup (110g) raw pecans, chopped

Preheat oven to 350°F.
Cut squash in half; remove and discard seeds. Place squash, cut side down, in a buttered ovenproof baking dish with about ½ inch of water. Bake about 1 hour, until tender when pricked with a fork.
After squash is cooked, scoop out flesh into a food processor and blend until smooth. Add eggs and nutmeg, and season to taste with salt. Transfer puree to an ovenproof serving dish. Pour the melted butter over the puree and sprinkle on pecans. Bake for about 30 minutes.
Wilted Spinach

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 3

1 bunch (~10 oz) (280g) whole fresh spinach leaves
butter, to taste

Cut stems off spinach and wash well in water—even if prewashed, so that the leaves are moist. Place in a large pot, cover, and heat over a medium flame. (Do not add more water to the pot; the water on the leaves will be sufficient to steam the spinach.)

When spinach begins to simmer, reduce heat to low. Cook several minutes, until leaves are just wilted. Using a slotted spoon, transfer spinach to a heated serving bowl. Press spinach with the back of the spoon and discard any liquid that accumulates. Make a few cuts through the spinach, and top with a generous pat of butter.
Spinach-Stuffed Mushrooms

This delicious and elegant accompaniment to beef may be prepared in advance.
(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 8

1 cup (150g) steamed spinach
8 large whole fresh white button mushrooms
1 bunch green onions, finely chopped
2 tbsp (30mL) butter
2 tbsp (30mL) olive oil
¼ tsp (1.25mL) nutmeg
salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
1–2 tbsp butter (to grease the dish)

Preheat oven to 350°F.
Chop cooked spinach, place in a strainer, and press out liquid.
Wash mushrooms. Remove and finely chop stems; set aside whole mushroom caps.
Sauté mushroom stems with green onions in butter and olive oil until tender. Add the spinach, and cook another minute or so, mixing well, until all moisture has evaporated. Add nutmeg, and season to taste with salt and pepper.
Fill the hollow of each mushroom cap with a spoonful of stuffing, and place in a buttered ovenproof baking dish. Add ¼ inch (6mm) of water to the dish, and bake for about 20 minutes.
Mary Jo’s Spinach

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 6

2 bunches fresh spinach
1 tbsp (15mL) butter
1 clove garlic, minced
1 tbsp (15mL) pine nuts
1 tbsp (15mL) sun-dried tomato flakes (optional)

Steam spinach as described for Wilted Spinach (page 18). Melt butter with garlic, pine nuts, and tomato flakes. Pour over spinach, mix slightly, and serve.
Baked Sweet Potatoes

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 4

4 whole (4-ounce) (113g) sweet potatoes
4 tsp (20mL) butter
salt to taste

Preheat oven to 350°F (117°C).
Prick each sweet potato in several places with a fork. Bake for 1½ hours, or until soft when pricked with a fork. Mash the flesh with butter and salt.
Sweet Potato Dollars

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 4

3–4 whole (4-ounce) (113g) sweet potatoes
1 tbsp (15mL) melted butter
2 tbsp (30mL) olive oil
salt to taste

Preheat oven to 350°F (117C).
Peel potatoes, and slice crosswise into ¼-inch rounds.
Combine butter and olive oil, and brush two cookie sheets with half of this mixture. Arrange the rounds in one layer, then brush tops with the remaining butter–oil mixture. Season lightly with salt. Bake about 45 minutes.
Sautéed Zucchini

Like all members of the squash family, zucchini is ruined by boiling. Even steaming gives watery results. Instead, sauté slices in butter or olive oil and finish with a squeeze of lemon and salt and pepper. (Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 4

6 medium zucchini, washed and trimmed
2 tsp (10mL) salt
2 tbsp (30mL) butter (or olive oil)
juice of ½ lemon
salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste

Slice zucchini into thin matchstick-like pieces (or use the small julienne disk of a food processor). Add salt, stir well to mix, and let stand 1 hour.
Rinse zucchini with water in a colander, and squeeze dry in a tea towel.
Melt butter slowly in a heavy skillet over low heat. Raise heat to medium, and sauté zucchini for about 1 minute. Remove to a serving dish, and season with lemon juice, salt, and pepper.
Zucchini with Tomatoes

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 4

2 medium zucchini, washed and trimmed
¾ tsp (3.75mL) salt
2 tbsp (30mL) butter, divided
2 tbsp (30mL) olive oil, divided
2 medium onions, peeled and chopped
2 medium tomatoes, peeled, seeded, and chopped
1 or 2 cloves garlic, minced
½ tsp (2.5mL) dried thyme
½ tsp (2.5mL) freshly ground black pepper

Cut zucchini into quarters lengthwise, then slice each section into thin quarter-rounds. Mix with salt, and let stand about 1 hour. Rinse zucchini in a colander, and pat dry.

Warm 1 tbsp (15mL) butter and 1 tbsp (15mL) olive oil in a large skillet, and sauté zucchini in batches over medium-high heat until golden. Remove and set aside zucchini.

Sauté onion in 1 tbsp (15mL) butter and 1 tbsp (15mL) olive oil over medium heat until tender. Add tomatoes, raise heat, and cook a few minutes until liquid is almost all absorbed. Add cooked zucchini, garlic, thyme, and pepper. Sauté about 1 minute more to mix flavors. Don’t overcook zucchini!
Roasted Red Pepper Dip

(From TheVeggieTable.com)

PREPARATION TIME: 5 – 10 Minutes
COOKING TIME: 30 Minutes
MAKES: 2 Cups (440g)

1 c (220g) home made mayonnaise (link to recipe)
1/3 cup (30g) raw parmesan cheese, grated
12 oz (340g) artichoke hearts (unmarinated)
1/8 tsp (.125mL) garlic powder
2 tbsp (30mL) red onion
1 cup (220g) roasted red peppers

Preheat oven to 350F (177C)
Place everything in the food processor and process until smooth.
Transfer to the baking dish and bake for 30 minutes. Serve warm.
Baba Ganouj - Roasted Eggplant Dip

A classic Middle Eastern dip made of roasted eggplant. Delicious!

COOKING TIME: 1 Hour
SERVES: 4

2 lbs (900g) eggplant
1 tbsp (15mL) olive oil
½ cup (120mL) fresh lemon juice
2 cloves garlic, minced
4 tbsp (60mL) tahini
4 tbsp (60mL) plain yogurt (optional)

Slice the eggplant in half lengthwise, score the face of each half with the knife, and brush each face with olive oil.
Bake or grill: If baking, place eggplant face up on cookie sheet and put on oven pre-heated to 450F (232C). If grilling, place eggplant face down over medium heat.
Cook for 40-50 minutes, until eggplant is black and soft. (Smaller eggplants will take less time.) Lay out on the platter to cool.
With a spoon, remove the eggplant flesh from the skin and place in blender or food processor. Discard skin.
Mix in remaining ingredients, taste, and add more tahini, lemon juice, and/or salt as necessary. Chill for about an hour.
Arrange baba ganouj in a shallow bowl, drizzle with olive oil and sprinkle with parsley. Serve with vegetables or sprouted grain toast.

The broiling/grilling step is the key to delicious baba ganouj: it makes the eggplant taste rich and smoky.
Baba ganouj keeps pretty well in the fridge, except for one thing: the garlic gets stronger with each passing day.
If you’re not planning to eat the baba ganouj right away, you might want to cut down on the amount of garlic for this recipe.
Vegetable Dishes

Pumpkin Soup

This spicy pumpkin soup is a good way to use up all of that pumpkin left over from Halloween.

COOKING TIME: 30 minutes
SERVES: 6

1 ½ pounds (675g) pumpkin (weighed before trimming)
1 leek, washed, trimmed, and sliced into rings
2 potatoes, peeled and diced
2 tbsp (30mL) olive oil
1 qt (1L) vegetable stock
½ tsp (2.5mL) salt
1 tsp (5mL) pepper
½ - 1 tsp (2.5-5mL) cayenne pepper

Cut the top off the pumpkin, scoop out the seeds and strings, peel the shell, and dice the flesh. Sauté the pumpkin, leek, and potatoes in olive oil for 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Add vegetable stock and bring to a boil. Cover and boil the soup for 15 minutes, until potatoes are soft. Purée the soup and add spices and lemon juice. Ladle into bowls and serve.

You can use leftover jack-o’-lanterns, but the soup will taste noticeably better if made with smaller, more flavorful pumpkins.
Basic Roasted Chicken

This recipe is quick, easy, and delicious! Refrigerate or freeze leftover chicken for quick meals during the week. (Joseph Mercola, Dr. Mercola’s Total Health Program)

PREPARATION TIME: 10 minutes
SERVES: 11

1 6- to 8-lb (2700-3600g) roasting chicken
1 tbsp (15mL) butter, softened
1 medium garlic clove, minced
¾ tsp (3.75mL) salt
4–5 grinds black pepper
2 tsp (10mL) minced fresh thyme leaves

Note: For a golden breast, turn the chicken before the last 30 minutes of cooking.

Preheat oven to 350°F (177C).
Wash chicken, and remove fat from inside cavity.
In a small bowl, combine butter, garlic, salt, pepper, and thyme to make a paste; rub it over the chicken. Place chicken in roasting pan, breast side down.
Roast, uncovered, basting frequently, for approximately 1½ hours (about 20 minutes per pound). Chicken is done when leg pulls off easily and juices no longer run red when chicken is pricked with a fork. Remove chicken from pan and let rest, covered, for 5–10 minutes.
Cut chicken into serving pieces, or slice and serve with gravy on the side. Remove skin before eating.

Tip: Deglaze the roasting pan and make gravy, if desired, thickened with 1½ tbsp arrowroot dissolved in 2 cups water.
Steamed Chicken and Vegetables

Steaming the chicken with vegetables is a simple, healthy method that reduces excess fat, cooking time, and kitchen mess.

((Joseph Mercola, Dr. Mercola’s Total Health Program)

PREPARATION TIME: 15 minutes

SERVES: 4

1 medium head savoy cabbage, shredded
¾ cup (110g) baby carrots, split lengthwise
1 1-inch (2.5cm) piece fresh ginger root, peeled, sliced, and cut into matchsticks
1 medium garlic clove, minced
6 scallions (or green onions), cut into thirds
½ cup (120mL) coarsely chopped curly (or flat-leaf) parsley
1 tsp (5mL) salt (or Spike vegetable seasoning, or Herbamare seasoned salt)
3–4 grinds black pepper
2 large boneless chicken breast halves, cut in half
2 tsp (10mL) coconut oil (or butter)
½ cup (120mL) chicken stock

Note: The author suggests cooking in a Bundt pan as the steamer; however, a bamboo steamer tray or a metal colander also can be used in a covered stockpot.

Bring 2–3 inches (5-7.6cm) of water to a boil in a large stockpot. Lower heat to simmer.
Place shredded cabbage in the bottom of a Bundt pan. Meanwhile, combine carrots, ginger, garlic, scallions, parsley, and chicken in a large bowl. Add oil, and season with salt and pepper. Toss to mix. Pile mixture evenly on top of cabbage.
Place Bundt pan into simmering water. Pour chicken stock over the chicken and vegetables, cover, and steam lightly for 18–20 minutes.

(Free-Gourmet-Recipes.com online recipes)

SERVES: 3–4

1 small (3- to 4-lb) chicken, cut into pieces
1 tbsp (15mL) butter
4 tbsp (60mL) olive oil

4 medium onions
2 whole heads garlic
1 tbsp (15mL) olive oil

Cornish Game Hens with Grapes

(Sally Fallon, Nourishing Traditions)

SERVES: 4

2 Cornish game hens, split lengthwise
2 tbsp (30mL) olive oil
2 tbsp (30mL) butter, melted
salt and freshly ground black pepper to taste
½ cup (120mL) dry white wine (or vermouth)
2 cups (475mL) chicken stock
2 cups (300g) red (or green) seedless grapes
2 tbsp (30mL) arrowroot mixed with 2 tbsp (30mL) water

Note: Arrowroot is a fine white powder that resembles cornstarch. Because it thickens when heated in liquid, it is an excellent ingredient in sauces.

Preheat oven to 375°F (191C).

Place game hens, skin side up, in a roasting pan. Brush with a mixture of butter and oil, and season with salt and pepper. Bake for about 1½ hours. Remove to a heated platter, and keep warm in the oven.

Pour wine into the roasting pan and bring mixture to a boil, scraping up any accumulated juices in the pan. Add chicken stock, bring to a rapid boil, skim, and let the sauce reduce for about 10 minutes. Add the grapes, and simmer about 5 minutes more. Add arrowroot mixture by the spoonful until the desired thickness is obtained. Transfer game hens to individual plates, and pour sauce over to serve.

COOKING TIME: 2–3 hours

1 12- to 14-lb turkey, brined (see http://bbq.about.com/cs/turkey/a/aa110103a.htm)
1 lemon, cut into wedges
¼–½ cup (60-120mL) olive oil
4 tbsp (60mL) unsalted butter, softened
salt and cracked black peppercorns to taste
3 sprigs fresh rosemary
3 sprigs fresh thyme
3–5 cups (700-1200mL) chicken broth (enough to cover the bottom of the pan ¼ inch)
1 cup (240mL) white wine
1 bay leaf
1 tbsp (15mL) dried thyme
1 tbsp (15mL) dried rosemary
1 tbsp (15mL) dried basil

Note: To create a golden skin, uncover turkey and increase oven temperature to 450°F about 30 minutes before the turkey is expected to be done.

Preheat oven to 325°F (163C)
Squeeze lemon juice over the turkey. Place juiced lemon wedges inside the chest cavity. Mix olive oil, butter, salt, and peppercorns, and rub over the entire turkey. Place fresh rosemary and thyme underneath breast skin. Tie legs together with kitchen string, and close cavity. Pour broth and wine in the bottom of the roasting pan; add bay leaf and dried herbs. Place turkey, breast side up, on a roasting rack in the pan, and cover the pan. Roast turkey until juices run clear and a meat thermometer reads 160°F (71C) when inserted into the thickest part of the breast without touching the bone. (Estimate 15 minutes per pound; a 12- to 14-pound turkey should be done in 2–3 hours.) Allow the turkey to rest 20 minutes out of the oven before carving.

SERVES: 4

4 large (4- to 6-ounce)(112-168g) beef cube steaks
½ cup (120mL) red wine
8 oz (230g) fresh mushrooms, quartered
2 medium garlic cloves, minced
2 tbsp (30mL) fresh parsley, finely chopped

Pour reserved marinade into pan, and bring to a boil over medium-high heat. Cook for a couple of minutes, then pour over steaks. Serve immediately.

Variation: If you are short on time, simply heat marinade ingredients together in a small pan for 2–3 minutes while searing steaks in butter as directed. Remove steaks from pan. Deglaze pan and add to the warmed marinade. Pour over steaks.

Beans

Cooked Beans

This is a great way to have delicious cooked beans ready at any moment to heat and eat or add to a recipe. Cook your favorite bean with the following indications.

PREPARATION TIME: Varies
COOKING TIME: Varies
SERVES: 4 – 6

1 cup (150g) dried beans (any variety)

Sort and clean the dried beans. Soak the beans in boiling water for 1 - 2 hours, or 6 - 12 hours in cold water, until they’re doubled in size and wrinkle free - soaking time varies with the bean. Drain and rinse the soaked beans, place in medium saucepan, cover with cold unsalted water. Bring to boil uncovered, boil for ten minutes. Skim the foam off the beans with a ladle or large flat spoon. Cover and simmer the beans for 1 - 2 hours OR cook 8 minutes at high pressure in a pressure cooker.

Slow cooker or crockpot: Add the beans, cover and turn the heat to low. Cooking time will vary with the bean, but six hours in the crockpot on low is about right for pinto beans

Note: It’s always worthwhile to double the bean recipe, and freeze in small containers or freezer bags for future vegetarian or vegan bean recipes.

2 tbsp (30mL) organic ketchup (optional as it adds sugar)
½ tsp (2.5mL) garlic salt

Process carrot in food processor until grated. Add oats and beans and pulse a few times. Add remaining ingredients and process until well combined but still slightly coarse. Chill for at least 45 minutes then form into 4 - 6 patties. Broil for 5-6 minutes on each side. You could also cook these mushroom veggie burgers on the grill, or pan fry in coconut oil.
Black Bean Veggie Burgers

PREPARATION TIME: 15 minutes
COOKING TIME: 20 – 30 minutes
SERVES: 10

2 cups (300g) black beans cooked
½ cup (75g) green pepper, chopped fine
½ cup (75g) red onion, chopped fine

1 tsp (5mL) cumin

Salt and pepper to taste
1/3 cup (60g) hummus
½ cup (45g) rolled oats

2 slices sprouted grain or spelt bread crumbled into tiny pieces (hint: blender or food processor works great)
Mash or puree half the beans, add reserved beans and all other ingredients EXCEPT hummus. Mix well by hand. Add enough of the hummus or other liquid ingredient to moisten mixture fairly well. ½ cup (75g) sunflower seeds ¼ cup (40g) sesame seeds several cups of water
1 cup (240g) soaked and cooked or canned chickpeas, drained and rinsed
2 tbsp (30mL) lemon juice
1 tbsp (15mL) water (can be from chickpea cooking water)
1 tbsp (15mL) gluten-free soy sauce
2 tsp (10mL) flaxseed or olive oil
1-2 tsp (5-10mL) kelp powder
½ cup (120g) homemade mayonnaise
1 stalk celery, minced
1/3 cup (50g) red onion, minced
2 tbsp (30mL) fresh parsley, minced

Rinse the almonds and seeds (a sieve or fine-holed colander is needed for the sesame seeds), place in bowl, cover with water, and let soak overnight. Rinse and drain.
Place the almonds, seeds, chickpeas, lemon juice, T water, soy sauce, oil, and kelp powder in food processor. Blend until well mixed but not quite smooth, 1-2 minutes.
Combine the mayonnaise, celery, onion, and parsley in the bowl, then add chickpea mixture. Cover and refrigerate for at least 30 minutes.
This mock tuna salad will last 2-3 days in the refrigerator.
This potato omelette is a traditional Spanish tapa, or appetizer, but it's equally good for breakfast or brunch.

PREPARATION TIME: 15 Minutes
COOKING TIME: 15 Minutes
SERVES: 6

1 pound (450g) potatoes (preferably sweet potatoes), peeled
1 large onion, diced
¼ cup (60mL) olive oil
5 eggs
salt and pepper

Slice the potatoes as thin as possible and dry with a paper towel. Sauté potatoes and onions in olive oil over medium heat, turning frequently, until golden brown (about three minutes).
Meanwhile, beat the eggs with salt and pepper until foamy, 1-2 minutes. Pour the eggs over the potatoes, cover, lower the heat, and cook for about 5-7 minutes, until the omelette is set and the bottom is golden brown. Slide the omelette onto a plate, cover with the other plate, flip, and slide the omelette back into the pan, so that the cooked side is on top. Cover and cook for about 5 minutes longer. Cut into wedges and serve.
No Crust Squash-Leek Quiche

This quiche made with squash and leeks is a simple yet elegant main course.

COOKING TIME: 50 minutes
SERVES: 6

1 large squash
1 tbsp (15g) butter
2 medium or one large leek, cleaned and chopped
¼ cup (60mL) yogurt
2 eggs
salt
pepper
½ cup (45g) raw cheddar cheese, grated (can be made without cheese as well)

Preheat oven to 425F (218C). Cut the squash in half, scoop out seeds, and then cut the halves into 1-inch (2.5cm) pieces. Place in baking dish with ½ an inch (13mm) of water. Bake until soft, 45-60 minutes.
Meanwhile, roll out pie crust and arrange in pie plate. Poke all over with a fork.
Melt butter, add leeks, and sauté until soft, about 10 minutes.
Beat together eggs, sour cream, salt, and pepper.
When the squash is done, lower oven to 350F (177C). Transfer squash to the large bowl and mash. Beat in the egg mixture, then stir in leeks.
Spread squash mixture into pie crust and sprinkle with cheese.
Bake until firm and golden, about 45 minutes. When it’s nearly done, sprinkle with pine nuts. (They’ll burn if they toast for more than a few minutes.)
Remove from oven and let cool for 5 minutes. Slice and serve.
Butternut is perfect for this quiche, though I managed to make a decent one with spaghetti squash.
Homemade Mayonnaise

PREPARATION TIME: Varies
MAKES: 2 Cups

1 egg
1 tablespoon (15mL) lemon juice
2 teaspoons (10mL) Dijon mustard
Sea salt and freshly cracked black pepper
1 cup (240mL) extra virgin olive oil

In a blender or food processor, process the egg, lemon juice, mustard, salt and pepper until well combined. While the motor is running, pour the oil in a slow, thin, steady stream and process until the mixture is thick and creamy

Take your time with this recipe. If you try and rush it, it won’t come out right.

Mini Vegetable Frittatas

COOKING TIME: 30 – 45 Minutes
MAKES: 8 - 10 frittatas.

8 large organic eggs
½ cup (118mL) organic milk, preferably raw (I’m going to try and use coconut milk next time and see if that works since I don’t eat very much dairy, but I figured I would stick to the recipe exactly as it was written for the first time.)
1 Tbsp. (15mL) butter
1 cup (120g) zucchini, diced
1 cup (124g) red pepper diced
1 cup (184g) sliced fresh mushrooms
1 leek diced
¼ cup (15g) fresh Italian flat leaf parsley, chopped finely
1 tsp. (6g) Celtic Sea Salt
½ tsp. (1g) black pepper

Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. Grease a large muffin tin with butter. Whisk eggs and milk together in a large mixing bowl. Set aside.
Heat butter in a medium skillet or frying pan over medium heat. Place zucchini, red pepper, mushrooms and leek in a skillet and sauté until vegetables become soft, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in parsley, salt and pepper. Fold vegetables into egg mixture.
Fill muffin cups three-quarters of the way full with vegetable frittata batter. Bake 20 to 30 minutes until frittatas are set and browned on top.
Serve hot or let cool and store in the fridge for later.
Breakfast Burritos

COOKING TIME: 5 – 10 Minutes
MAKES: 4 burritos

1-2 tbsp (5mL) butter
½ cup (80g) onion, chopped
2-3 eggs
1 small tomato (preferably Roma), chopped
1-2 tbsp (15-30mL) fresh herbs (thyme, rosemary...), minced
2 tbsp (30mL) soy sauce (wheat free preferably)
¼ cup (30g) chopped walnuts or pecans
2-3 tbsp (14-21g) grated raw cheese (optional)

Heat the butter, add onion, and sauté for 3-4 minutes, stirring frequently. Scramble the eggs.
Add eggs to onions. Cook for 2 minutes; add tomato, soy sauce, and herbs; and heat until warm. Stir in walnuts and optional cheese and remove from stove.
Place half of mixture in a line in the center of each tortilla, leaving 1 inch at either end of the line. Fold each end up to the filling, then fold in one side. Roll. Voilà your breakfast burritos!
Notes You can leave out the tomato and/or walnuts and/or add other veggies... pretty much whatever you like! If you don’t have any tortillas, you can just serve the filling with some sprouted grain toast or some raw veggies.
Egg Lemon Soup

This interesting, lemony soup is traditional in Greek cuisine. Serve with Greek salad, hummus, and spanakopita for a veggie Greek meal.

COOKING TIME: 45 minutes
SERVES: 4-6

6 cups (1425mL) vegetable stock
½ cup (93g) brown rice
1 egg
2 egg yolks
¼ cup (59mL) lemon juice

Bring the stock to a boil, add rice, cover, and cook until tender, 30-40 minutes. You don’t need to stir it, but do check on the rice regularly to avoid overcooking.
Just before the rice is done, beat the eggs and yolks until light and fluffy, beat in lemon juice, then beat in 1 cup stock.
Combine the egg lemon with the rice, bring to near boil, stir in parsley, and serve.

Notes Egg lemon soup is traditionally made with chicken broth, but since lemon is the main flavor, this veggie version tastes almost identical.
Deviled Eggs

PREPARATION TIME: 30 minutes
MAKES: 12 halves

6 eggs
¼ cup (59g) homemade mayonnaise
1 tbsp (15mL) soy sauce
1 tsp (5g) dry, yellow, or Dijon mustard
2 tbsp (20g) red onion, minced
dash salt

Place the eggs in the pot and cover with cold water. Once water simmers, cook for 8-10 minutes. Drain the eggs, place in a bowl of cold water, remove one, tap lightly all over until shell cracks, and peel. If it gets too hot to handle, just hold it underwater for a few seconds and try again. (You may need to add more water to the bowl to keep it cold). Peel all of the eggs, then cut in half length-wise. Arrange on a plate.
Pop the yolks out of each half and place in the other bowl, being careful not to break the egg whites. Mash the yolks, then stir in mayonnaise, soy sauce, mustard, onion, and salt.
Take a spoonful of yolk mixture, and use the other spoon to scrape it into one of the egg white holes. Repeat with remaining yolk and whites. If you have some yolk left, just add a bit more to the deviled eggs that don’t have enough.
Sprinkle with paprika and/or parsley, and serve.
Deviled eggs are the perfect finger food - you can just grab one and go, so they are great for picnics and parties.
Spanish Tortilla with Zucchini

COOKING TIME: 1 hour 15 minutes
SERVES: 8

1 large or 3 small zucchini, grated (about 1 pound)
2 tsp (10mL) salt
¾ cup (180mL) olive oil
1 lb (450g) potatoes, scrubbed* and diced into ½-inch cubes
1 large onion, chopped
5-6 eggs
dash of nutmeg

Place grated zucchini in colander, toss with 1 tsp salt, and set in sink or over a bowl to drain. Heat oil, reduce heat to medium-low, add potatoes, onion, and ½ t salt, and sauté, stirring occasionally, for 30 minutes. If potatoes start to brown, reduce heat. Squeeze handfuls of zucchini to get rid of as much water as possible, and add the zucchini to the potatoes. Sauté, stirring occasionally, for another 15 minutes. Remove from heat, and use the slotted spoon to transfer vegetables to a large bowl, allowing excess oil to remain in the pan.

In the small bowl, beat the eggs with remaining ½ tsp salt, nutmeg, and pepper, then stir into the vegetables. Pour into pan, press everything down lightly, and cook, covered, over very low heat. After 7 minutes, use a rubber spatula to gently lift up one side and check the color of the bottom. When the tortilla is just about set and the bottom is lightly golden (no more than 12 minutes total), remove from heat and let stand, still covered, 5-10 minutes, until set.

Run rubber spatula all the way around the pan to make sure the tortilla isn’t stuck anywhere. Place plate upside-down over pan and quickly (and carefully!) flip both, so that the top of the tortilla is now the bottom. Slide tortilla back into the pan and cook over low heat for another five minutes. Let cool and serve.

No need to peel the potatoes - they are soft and delicious in this tortilla, plus there’s lots of nutrients in the skin. This is a strange recipe in that it’s good hot, but it’s great at room temperature, so the leftovers are even better than the original dish.
